Discover Soho's hero restaurants and bars this summer

New to the neighbourhood include Miznon, Maresco and Speedboat Bar. For the best fluffy pittas filled with mediterranean flavour, Miznon has a selection of mouth watering dishes such as the Original Whole Cauliflower, the Lamb Kebab filled with sensual seasoned meat together with grilled tomato and onions closed with tahini and pickles. Or try Maresco for Spanish dishes curated with fresh Scottish produce. For a late night spot discover Speedboat Bar which serves drinks and snacks throughout the evening.

Discover the taste of modern day Jerusalem in a beautiful setting, The Palomar is every foodie's heaven featuring dishes such as Chimichurri Ribeye, grilled broccoli served with Laban Kishk and Chirshi and fresh bright salads.

For an authentic Indian with a modern twist dine at Kricket. The restaurant has a theatre kitchen, counter seating and long sharing tables. Or head down to SOMA, a modern and minimalistic take on the basement speakeasy where all the drinks are inspired by Indian flavours.

Try authentic Thai dishes cooked on a wood burning open grill at KILN or head to Ember Yard for Spanish tapas sharing plates.

Visit El Camion, a lively Mexican restaurant and late night hot spot in the centre of Soho. The ground floors serve fresh Mexican cuisine made from the finest ingredients, whilst the fun-loving basement bar The Pink Chihuahua, offers drinks and dancing until the early hours.
