

WHERE TO CELEBRATE PRIDE IN SOHO

London, June 2024, Soho stands out as the ultimate destination to celebrate Pride Month. Known for its history of inclusivity and celebratory parades, as well as being home to some of London's most iconic LGBTQ+ bars and music venues, the central London location is set to become the backdrop to a fun-filled month of celebrations.

This year, Soho is offering a variety of captivating in-store experiences across food, beauty and fashion residents in the area ahead of Pride Month.

Soho culminates in the vibrancy of Pride weekend, as the Pride in London parade returns to the streets on Saturday 29th June in celebration of the LGBTQ+ community. With Soho and Carnaby Street at the epicentre of the celebrations spreading the love, unity and joy with music, and vibes with a common goal of advancing equality and diversity.

Restaurants bringing Pride celebrations to life

Little Violet Door brings the hottest house party for Pride weekend

Carnaby Street's newest member, Little Violet Door will be opening their doors from 12pm all day for bookings and walk-ins, The new Soho hot spot is also hosting a ticketed after party, hosted by Joyeux Bordel.

Little Violet Door is bringing the party vibes with a live DJ spinning disco and gay anthems accompanied with one mega fancy dress box and a roaming photobooth to capture Soho's glamorous and best dressed Pride party goers. The house party will span across two floors of the latest Soho pad, with eclectic décor drawing inspiration from Carnaby Street.

For more information and tickets please visit:

<https://www.designmynight.com/london/bars/soho/the-little-violet-door/kitchen-disco-pride-after-party?t=tickets>

Little Violet Door, 9 Kingly St, Soho

29 June from 12pm

Dishoom is bringing Kulfi to the streets of Soho

The Indian inspired restaurant is bringing Kulfi to Soho with a cart stationed outside the café on Kingly Street. The sweet, iced and creamy treat reminiscent of golden Chowpatty sunsets and complimentary sweets will be available on 29th June celebrating the dignity, equality, and visibility of the LGBTQIA+ community.

Dishoom Carnaby, 22 Kingly Street, Soho

29 June

Le Bab is giving back to the community with its mighty Mai Tai

Le Bab has a mighty Mai Tai on the menu, made with a selection of rums Triple Sec, lime juice and a hint of sweetness, finished with a maraschino cherry, donating a portion of each sale on the cocktail to Stonewall, a charity dedicated to creating change for the LGBTQ+ community.

Le Bab, Top Floor, Kingly Court
All of June

Cecconi's Pizza Bar and Café Bohème are throwing a party

On 29th June, the must-visit homemade pasta and wood-fired pizza hotspot, Cecconi's Pizza Bar will be opening its doors for an all-day party as a part of London's Pride celebrations. The pizza house will be hosting DJ throughout the day and night with Cicchetti, pizzette and pizza available for take-away throughout the day. The Italian eatery will undoubtedly bring good vibes and good food.

For alfresco-dining, Café Bohème is also hosting a celebration for Pride with an all-day party on 29th June with cocktails available from £12 and snacks to hand for those celebrating pride on the go. The French-inspired bistro will also have celebrations taking place from 10am – 3am with DJs on from 2pm until late.

Cecconi's Pizza Bar Soho (walk ins only), 19-21 Old Compton Street
Café Bohème (walk ins only), 13 Old Compton Street
29 June

For those looking for other iconic Soho restaurants and bars to dine at from morning 'til night over Pride month, please see below the best places to visit:

Breakfast:

- The Breakfast Club, 11 Berwick Street, Soho
- Flat White, 17 Berwick Street

Lunch:

- Bar Kroketa, 21 Beak Street
- Dehesa, 25 Ganton Street
- Tapas Brindisa, 46 Broadwick Street
- Blue Posts, 28 Rupert Street

Dinner:

- Rita's, 49 Lexington Street
- Kolamba, 21 Kingly Street
- Bebe Bob, 37 Golden Square
- Donia, Top Floor, Kingly Court, Carnaby Street

Evening entertainment:

- Cahoots, 13 Kingly Court
- Hovarda, 36-40 Rupert Street
- Ronnie Scott's, 47 Frith Street
- Flute, 7th floor, 20 Broadwick St

Where to shop, learn, and rejuvenate in celebration of Pride

The Aesop Queer Library

For those looking to dive into the literacy history of the LGBTQ community, luxury skincare brand, Aesop, will be hosting its annual Aesop Queen Library for a fourth year. From 27 – 30 June, the store will offer complimentary books by LGBTQIA+ writers and the library will explore multiple margins and stories from the intersection of queer and racial identities.

The Aesop Queer Library, 41 Lexington Street, Soho
27 June – 30 June

Skin Laundry creates Pride inspired menu

For the beauty connoisseurs, Skin Laundry, leading laser facial destination will be offering 50% off for new clients first laser facial. In the run up to Pride, Skin Laundry will be giving out flyers in store and in Soho to redeem the exclusive offer from 26th – 30th June.

Skin Laundry, 9 Newburgh St, Soho
26th – 30th June * deal available until August 2024

About Soho

Soho is a world-famous shopping and dining destination in the heart of London's West End, synonymous with culture, creativity and innovation. Made up of one square mile of vibrant interconnecting streets including the globally renowned Carnaby Street, it's home to a multi-dimensional mix of international flagships, independent boutiques and innovative, new concept stores. The epicentre of London's dining scene, its unique day-to-night hospitality offer comprises high-quality restaurants, cafés, bars and pubs.

Carnaby.co.uk / @CarnabyLondon
ThisisSoho.co.uk / @ThisisSoho