

PRESS RELEASE

10th July 2023

A SUMMER OF ART, SHOPPING AND DINING WITH CARNABY IN COLOUR

This summer head to Carnaby for a line up of shopping and dining activations and a brand new colourful art installation until September as part of Carnaby In Colour. Carnaby brings you over 100 international and British labels, independent boutiques and one-off concepts. Plus over 60 restaurants, bars and cafés.

The Welcome To Carnaby Street arches have also been upcycled with colourful recycled hand embellishments, alongside three hand/heart installations suspended above Carnaby Street & Newburgh Street. The colourful installation, which will be in situ until mid September, is in collaboration with experimental recycling company, Are You Mad.

Carnaby brands, restaurants and bars are offering an exciting lineup of promotions, activations, menus and collections:

- Paul Smith: THE PRIDE PROJECT 30th June – 28th August. To mark Pride 2023, Paul Smith has collaborated with artists to help them show, through their work, what Pride means to them. They will donate 50% of the net purchase price from the sales of the artwork from this new exhibition to MindOut, the LGBTQ mental health service charity
- IKKS Paris: Up to 50% off the spring-summer collection in-store and window displays dedicated to Pride.
- MAC: Will launch an exciting new collection of colourful 'Squirt Plumping Gloss Sticks'
- Cubitts: Summer frame collection lands in-store with new colours
- Imad's Syrian Kitchen: Two week pop-up restaurant in Kingly Court before moving to their new location
- Kat Maconie: New collection called 'Bold Move' featuring rainbow colours and new shapes.
- Kaleido Rolls: Delicious colourful salad rolls available at their brand new store - 10 Kingly Street
- Hayley Menzies: Summer discounts up to 50% off in-store including the iconic colour prints
