Covent Garden has launched its magical Christmas celebrations with a dazzling estate-wide festive display and a programme of exciting events. The world-famous Christmas tree is now lit with 30,000 lights, and over 115,000 lights sparkle across its historic streets. Visitors can explore a brand new Dolce&Gabbana pop up on the iconic Piazza, the third year of London's Winter Warmer Mulled Wine Festival, new stores from Missoma and Lounge Underwear, exciting family photo moments, weekly shopping evenings with gospel choir performances, festive performances at the Royal Opera House, the ultimate dining experiences and so much more.

Dolce&Gabbana has launched an exclusive pop-up bringing a taste of Italy to the heart of central London, which will be open today, Tuesday 8th November until 15th January 2023. The Italian luxury and lifestyle brand will play host to a Christmas Market including food and drinks, Dolce&Gabbana Casa gift ideas, ready-to-wear fashion, sneakers and an exclusive Covent-Garden-only t-shirt with a London print. The pop-up will also include products from Dolce&Gabbana partners Bialetti, Fiasconaro, Donna Fugata, Pasta Di Martino and Baci Perugina. As part of the partnership Covent Garden's Insta-famous swing will also be given a seasonal Italian makeover by the brand and a weekly D&G festive market cart selling Panettone will also be in the Market Building.

For visitors looking to get into the festive season, Covent Garden's third annual Winter Warmer Mulled Wine Festival is now running until 20th November, with an array of festive drinks with a twist for everyone to enjoy. There are over 100 varieties of hot toddies, hot chocolates, mulled wine and more served across the estate, including The Ivy Market Grill and Frenchie's House Mulled Wine, Cora Pearl's Spiced Kitty, Avo Bar's Gingerbread latte, and Apple Pie Punch, Mariage Frere's tea infused Mulled Wine and Ave Mario's Mulled Old Fashioned. There will also be special offers at Lilly's Winter Terrace with two-for-one offers on mulled wine with a heated Piazza seat overlooking the Christmas tree. The much loved traditional Christmas mulled wine cart in the Market Building will also serve mulled wine and mince pies throughout the festive season.

Also launching in Covent Garden for the festive season are jewellery brand Missoma at 8 Market Building with their first ever standalone store in late November and Lounge Underwear is also opening their first standalone store at 7 James Street in early December. Jaeger-LeCoultre will be popping up on the Piazza from 15th - 24th December, with an exhibition paying homage to its iconic Reverso timepiece; plus L'Or coffee are opening at 4 Henrietta St from 21st November until 23rd December to showcase their coffee machines, a mocktail bar and Patisserie.

For the ultimate Christmas photo moments, London's favourite festive neighbourhood continues to sparkle each day. The much-loved handpicked British grown Christmas tree sits at 60ft tall this year and accompanies the Market Building's decorative scheme with giant snowball-inspired baubles, mistletoe and mirror balls. The festive lights will sparkle daily from 11am - midnight from 8th November until 3rd January 2023. A new photo moment for Christmas 2022 is the Covent Garden Christmas Sleigh. Parked up in the South Hall of the Market Building the Sleigh is a traditionally decorated 1884 carriage hand painted by British artist James Gemmill. The Market Building will also play host to the Wonder Wood - a forest of trees decorated by the Covent Garden horticultural team. This year for the first time visitors are invited to scan QR codes amongst the trees, to make a direct donation to children's charity Cash4Kids. From 29th November, donations will go towards the charity's 'Mission Christmas' which ensures that no child goes without a present under the tree on Christmas Day. From 1st – 31st December, Covent Garden will be the ultimate winter wonderland as the area's much loved daily snowfall will return, with hourly flurries from midday – 9pm, in front of Covent Garden's Christmas tree.

ELF the musical

ELF, the smash hit musical, returns to London in a new production for a strictly limited 8-week season from 14 November 2022. Based on the beloved 2003 New Line Cinema hit starring Will Ferrell, ELF is the funny and charming tale of Buddy, who mistakenly crawls into Santa's bag of gifts as a baby and is transported back to the North Pole and raised as an elf! Unaware that he is actually human, Buddy's enormous size and poor toy-making abilities finally cause him to face the truth and realise he'll never belong in the North Pole. With Santa's permission, Buddy embarks on a journey to New York to find his birth father, discover his true identity and help New York remember the true meaning of Christmas. Starring Simon Lipkin as Buddy, Georgina Castle as Jovie, Tom Chambers as Walter Hobbs and Rebecca Lock as Emily Hobbs. The new production is directed by Philip Wm. McKinley, with original set and costume design by Tim Goodchild, choreography by Liam Steel, lighting design by Patrick Woodroffe and sound by Gareth Owen.. Age Guidance: 5+
