

PRESS RELEASE

CELEBRATE THE KING'S CORONATION IN CARNABY

29th March 2023

Carnaby will display a series of installations to celebrate the coronation of King Charles III in May. Visitors will be welcomed to the destination with a new shimmering red and silver 'Coronation in Carnaby' arch as well as a glistening Union Flag and oversized crown that will be suspended above the street. The giant light bulb art installation on Ganton Street will be turned red, white and blue for the duration. Plus, on Saturday 6th May there will be live roaming music to entertain visitors.

Dine like a royal

Aptly named 'Kingly Court' is the place to eat for the Coronation weekend, with 28 food and beverage options including the newly opened Darjeeling Express, and vibrant independent favourites such as Korean Dinner Party and Imad's Syrian Kitchen. Visitors can dine on one of the 3 floors, soak up the sun in the central open air courtyard or stay after hours at Nightjar, a late night live jazz bar.

Kingly Street offers a variety of different restaurants from Bombay café Dishoom, tapas bar, Dehesa or small plates and great organic wines at Bar Crispin. Alongside traditional London pubs The Blue Post and The Clachan, find 1940s themed cocktail bar Cahooots and London's original blues bar, Ain't Nothin But, with live music seven days a week.

Shop British

Carnaby is home to a number of British brands, including the only store in the world for the Rolling Stones' lifestyle brand RS No. 9 Carnaby, menswear brand Aubin and RÆBURN a fashion label designed by Christopher Raeburn with a unique innovative approach to creating sustainable apparel. Barbour is a fifth generation family owned business offering stylish clothing inspired by the unique values of the British countryside. Mark Powell, is one of London's most iconic and influential bespoke tailors who has dressed many celebrities and has been based in Soho for over 30 years. Rock and roll jewellers, The Great Frog has been housed in this location since the 1960s and handcrafts jewellery onsite and for many celebrity clients such as world's rock legends; Metallica, Iron Maiden and Aerosmith, as well as Kate Moss and Naomi Campbell.
