

PRESS RELEASE

APM MONACO TO OPEN IN COVENT GARDEN

Capital & Counties Properties PLC ('Capco') is delighted to announce that contemporary jewellery brand APM Monaco is set to open a flagship London store in Covent Garden's Royal Opera House Arcade later this year.

With its beautiful collections of hand-crafted designs, APM Monaco joins Covent Garden's array of favoured jewellery and accessories retailers including Tiffany & Co, Bucherer and Daniel Wellington.

Founded in 1982 by Ariane Prette, APM Monaco takes inspiration from Monaco and Southern France's decadent and chic lifestyle. Crafted with the contemporary woman in mind, APM Monaco endeavours to stay on-trend by introducing a new themed collection each month. The brand's strength is found in its unique and modern everyday, everywhere designs.

This year's arrival of APM Monaco further cements Covent Garden as London's ultimate shopping and dining destination, as the new addition will sit alongside recent openings including Petersham Nurseries, Tom Ford Beauty, Tiffany & Co and Cora Pearl.

About APM Monaco

Influenced by Monaco and the South of France, APM Monaco is a contemporary fashion jewellery brand with a touch of Monegasque flair.

Named after founder Ariane Prette, APM Monaco was created in 1982 and made her mark first in producing pieces for many great names in the jewellery business. After 30 years of developing and perfecting traditional handcrafted quality jewellery, the Prette family decided to venture into the design-focused jewellery business and continues to carry on Ariane's legacy with the aim to make APM Monaco not only a household name but one that is modern yet timeless and fits perfect with current market trends.
